Pete requested that the Assembly participate and provide an Honor Guard. He also requested that the Assembly consider full or partial sponsorship of one of the items listed in the flyer. ### Assembly Shirts

Brother Mike Ilderton provided options for the shirts with embroidered features, consisting of the 4th Degree emblem, Assembly name, and Assembly number on the left breast, and person's first name on the right breast. The options were e-mailed to the Assembly and asked their preference. Four options were provided:

- Option 1 – Cutter & Buck CB Drytec Genre Textured (100% Polyester) Mens Polo – Navy
- Option 2 – Cutter & Buck Prospect Textured Stretch (92% Polyester, 8% Spandex) Men's Polo - Navy
- Option 3 – Cutter & Buck Forge Stretch (96% Polyester, 4% Spandex) Men's Polo – Digital Blue
- Option 4 – Cutter & Buck Forge Stretch (96% Polyester, 4% Spandex) Men's Polo – Navy

Faithful Captain Joe Monahan received several responses to his e-mail. Discussion followed. Preference of those in attendance as well as by e-mail was for option 3, digital blue. Determining factor was color. It was believed that digital blue is closer to the K of C blue color. Joe asked for a show of hands of those that would purchase a shirt. All twenty in attendance responded yes. Now that he knows which option and minimum quantity, he can contact Mike and get a price.

A motion was made that the Assembly pick-up the cost for the Faithful Friar and Deacon members of the Assembly. This was seconded, and approved. The motion was then amended to include Assembly Council Priests and Deacons. Discussion followed whether non-assembly members should be included. The concern was whether they would actually wear them. It was decided that it would be good advertising for membership to include them. Amended motion was seconded, and approved.

Confirmation

Our Assembly provided an Honor Guard for IHM's Confirmation on Thursday, June 2nd at 6:00 PM. Thank-you to 7 Sir Knights that participated (6 in the new regalia, and the commander in tux with social baldric). This was our first public appearance since COVID and was very well received.
